Turning Off Home Lights Does Not Save Birds

Turning Off Home Lights: NO Scientific Justification Jim Cubie Ornithology Center at Muhlenberg College I followed this quote, “make a big difference” all the way back to its source. When asked the question, “How could this be?” I was referred to the Van Doren paper. It is the only study showing that light management in a building Continue reading “Turning Off Home Lights Does Not Save Birds”

Cancer, window collisions and cats

The Fallacy of “10 Good Things For Birds” A doctor would never counsel his patients like bird organizations advise homeowners. A two-packs-per-day smoker visits his doctor. The patient asks, “what can I do to extend my life.” His doctor will tell him that he should eat right, exercise, and take his blood pressure medicine, but Continue reading “Cancer, window collisions and cats”

Environmental Laws Are Christian Based

Our modern environmental laws are founded on the Christian values of the culture in which our system of laws was developed. Because some environmentalists hold non-Christian world views, some Christians, especially evangelicals, see modern environmental laws as rooted in pagan values. They are not. They are rooted in a system of law developed in a deeply Christian Continue reading “Environmental Laws Are Christian Based”
